Youtube the mad drummer

Mad drummer leaves bad gig! After much considering, I decided to leave Rick & The Allnighters to make room for new opportunities. They say one door has to close to open another. I'm immensely grateful for my happiness over the last few years, but I want a lot more!!! When I was a kid I would sit in my room listening to KISS records, and fantasise about playing Madison Square Garden. I told my parents I was going to play there one day, and they never discouraged me. I promised them (and myself) that one day their sacrifices would pay off. Mad drummer clinic in Russia Moscow is still MAD! I will be doing a Master Class in Russia at the Glastonberry Club on June 27, at 7pm. This is a ticketed event, and the amount is limited... so grab the ticket quickly. I would like to thank blastbeat drum shop for sponsoring this event as well as all the incredible companies I support. I'll see you there! Click on the link below for more information: ( Mad Drummer performs in Moscow Russia I was honored (along with Rick) to be a special guest at dream drum party in Moscow Russia. We were treated like kings. Production was crazy! What a great experience. Meet & Greet in Austria I'll be appearing in Klangfarbe in Vienna, Austria for a Meet & Greet Meet & Greet. Meet & Greet. Just to be clear, it's Meet & Greet, (not a Master Class or Clinic). Come out, take a picture, and we'll talk at the store for a few hours. Having been with another big company for over a decade, I found myself struggling a bit with my sticks. I tried several different models, but it seemed that nothing helps. On a whim, I jumped online and bought a pair of Vater Drumsticks. The moment I played them, I knew I wanted to switch.
